CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

By REV. R. A. YOUNG

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH

At this time the whole world gathers about the Manger-Cradle of Bethlehem. How wonderful that the Saviour of the world came as a child into a human home . . . the child grew, and God said: "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

Once more on this, the Birthday of the Christ, let us dedicate our homes to Him; let us erect family altars and give His Word its true place in our family circles; let us cherish and perpetuate His Church and Kingdom; and let us cast ourselves, our best gifts at His feet.

To all citizens of Torrance, and to all whom you hold dear, I send my heart's greetings in His Name. May your Christmas Joy be truly plentiful, and may the glad song of the angels . . . "Behold, I bring good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people," find an echo of the Christmas Peace in our city and in your hearts.

Sincerely yours,
R. A. YOUNG,

Belle Bennett in Mother Role at The Lomita

Great Star of "Stella Dallas" Will Be Seen in New Heart-Gripper

Lomita Theatre's Christmas week program offers a variety of entertainment, calculated to bring relaxation after the strenuous days of shopping and planning for the holiday.

Tonight's and tomorrow's bill is headed by "The Chinese Parrot," with a couple of comedies and the usual distribution of gifts.

On Christmas eve will be shown that dashing feature, "Pride of the Force." A comedy, "My Baby," "Felix Full of Fight," and a special assortment of gifts for children only will complete the program.

For Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 27-28 a big double bill will be offered, "The Irresistible Lover," starring Norman Kerry and Lois Moran, "The Battling Buckaroo," comedy and news laughs.

Belle Bennett's latest triumph is to be seen in "The Fourth Commandment," a Universal production which will be shown at this theatre Christmas night and Monday.

In the big film drama Miss Bennett achieves a mother role even greater than that of "Stella Dallas," and "The Fourth Commandment" is being heralded as one of the outstanding film dramas of the year.

Directed by Emory Johnson it carries a thundering message and at the same time manages to be exceptional entertainment.

Vividly enacted, the story of "The Fourth Commandment" has a personal appeal in that its characters are those of every day life, real, human and interesting.

Billy and Keith Gridley of Los Angeles are guests this week of their grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gridley of Oak street. Mrs. Gridley has just returned from Victorville, where her daughter, Mrs. Dewey McDougal is recovering from a serious illness.
